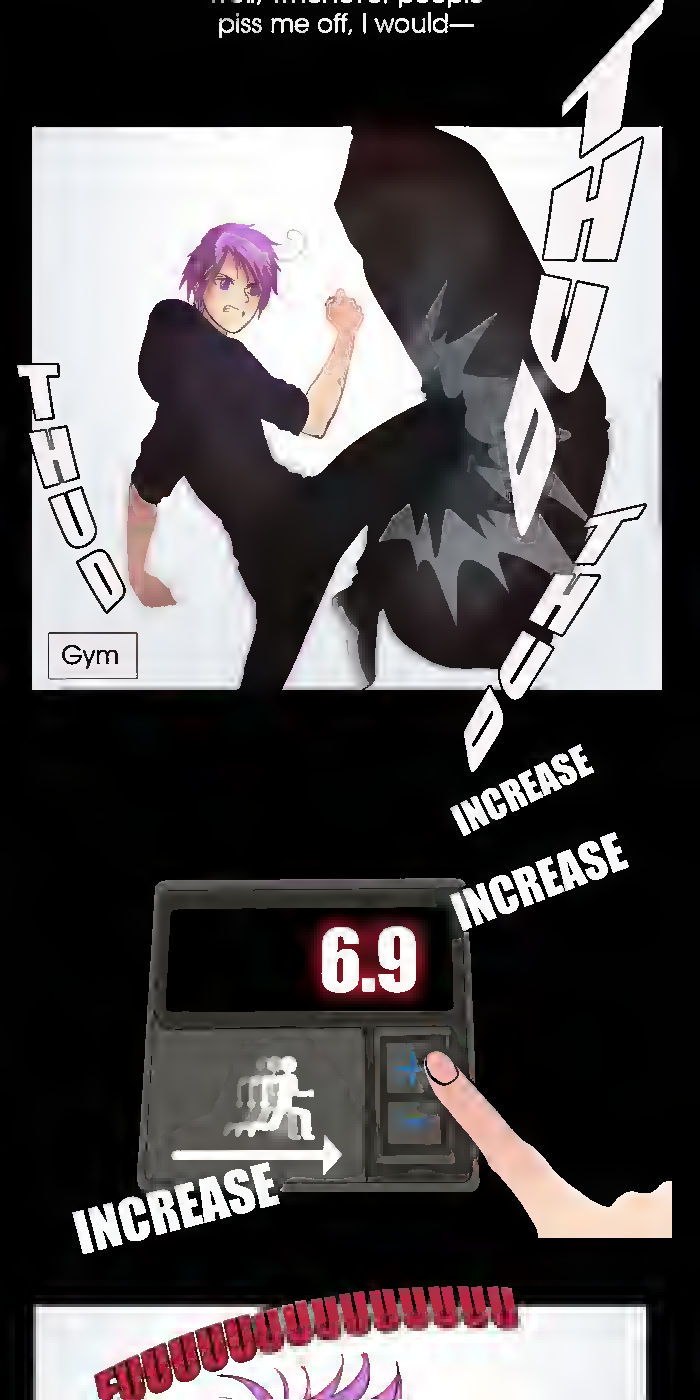
In Shape

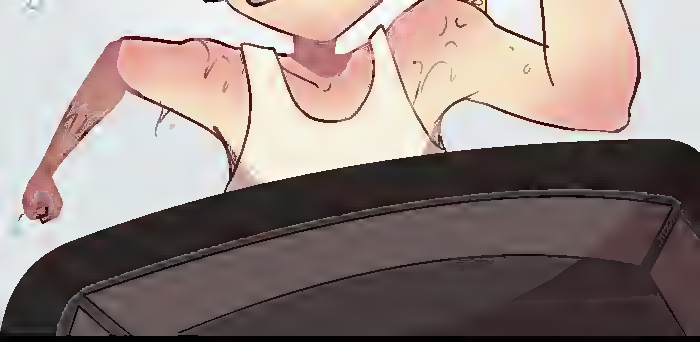
Well, whenever people

piss me off, I would—



And people tend to piss me off abs-level-often.

Like when the contents of my recently purchased chips "mysteriously" vanished.
Wasn't me.
WASN'T ME EITHER!
lil' sis's voice.
FUUUUUUUUU



Or when a reader tags me in a post on social media

I did hit the gym afterword lol.

PS: If you run into me in person, I don't care whot pronouns you use. I know it's procticolly impossible to fight ogoinst whot your broin sees. But it's not difficult to censor yourself over sociol medios.

My gender pronouns preference over the internet is "he". Grotitudes.
